A Miss FAIRCHILD, of Iowa, is now in Washington, applying at the Pay Department for back pay for serving in the Western armies as a cavalryman. She says she enlisted in 1861, with her husband (a John Clayton), in the Thirteenth Missouri Cavalry, and fought for two years as a cavalryman in our armies. She fought under Grant, Sheridan and Rosecrans. She was in the battles of Shiloh, or Pittsburg Landing, and Stone River, and at the latter battle her husband was killed and she severely wounded. Her sex thus became known and she was discharged the service. She has married since, and is now endeavoring to get the pay due her when discharged; but there is no law which would authorize her payment, females not being recognized by any as soldiers. Mrs. Sigel's appearance and manners cannot be said to be very prepossessing. She has evidently seen hard service in camp or elsewhere, and has contracted all the rude airs, attitudes and manners of a man. She wears a Scotch cap, cocked on one side of her head, chews tobacco, smokes and swears like a very trooper, as she claims to be. She is accompanied by her present husband. Both are very poor, and have been compelled to sleep in the station-house every night they have been in Washington. Altogether, Mrs. Sigel, who bears traces of having once been in better condition, even good-looking—presents a sad illustration of the effects of a woman stepping out of her natural sphere, to enter upon a career entirely foreign to the design of her creation. A friend asks: "Would she not be a valuable subject for the study of the advocate of what is called 'woman's rights?'"

SNOW SLIDE—TWO LIVES LOST.—Seldom a more painful task has fallen to our lot than that of penning this item, involving as it does the record of the death of two citizens. The wind blew heavily and the snow drifted correspondingly on the 12th, 13th and 14th, piling up immense drifts until along precipitous places their own weight caused them to give way, and in some instances with such power as to demolish everything less firm than the mountains. About a quarter of a mile up Long Gulch from Washington street, on the south side, a slide occurred about 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning, which resulted in the instant death of two brothers—Lewis B. and H. H. Rodgers. They occupied a cabin on the opposite side of the creek, but the gulch being narrow and the slide a large one, it mostly lanced over the channel and completely covered and crushed in the cabin in which the unfortunate brothers were living. They were both found together with every indication that they were sitting upon a bench in front of the fire-place cooking their morning meal. The chimney was of stone and thrown upon them, which weight alone would have proved fatal. Letters placed in our possession and written to the deceased reveal something of their family. One of date Nov. 2d, 1866, and written at Marysville, California, is from their father, J. P. Rodgers, who left Owyhee in July last.—Owyhee Avalanche, 19th.

A FAST YOUNG MAN.—The young Duke of Hamilton, the premier nobleman of "the kingdom of Scotland," and the representative of the Stuart family, three years ago succeeded to his title and an estate which realized $350,000 per annum. He took to horse racing and other means of lavish expenditure, and now he is a pensioner of his creditors, with every acre of his land, his palaces and town residences in the hands of Jew lenders, where they will probably remain until the next heir of entail succeeds to the title.

SUICIDE AT BELMONT.—On Monday, the 14th instant, a man named Richard J. Nalla, committed suicide at Belmont, in the Silver Bend District. While under the influence of liquor he went to his cabin, and after eating deliberately took off his coat, and sitting down on the side of his bed he placed the muzzle of a revolver to his forehead, and pulling the trigger killed himself instantly. Nalla was from Ohio, and about 24 years of age.—Reveille.

POETIC.—I clasped her tiny hand in mine; I clasped her beauteous form; I vowed to shield her from the wind, and from the world's cold storm. She set her beauteous eyes on me, the tears did wildly flow; and with her little lips she said, "Confound you, let me go!"

A celebrated French preacher, in a sermon upon the duty of wives, said: "I see in this congregation a woman who has been guilty of the sin of disobedience to her husband, and in order to point her out, I will fling my breviary at her head." He lifted his book and every female head ducked.

"The Howard Amendment" Once More.

In our last issue we stated as one objection to the "Howard Amendment," to the Anti-Polygamy Act, that the clause authorizing the trial and conviction of offenders by the Court, without the intervention of a jury, was, transparently unconstitutional and could not, in our opinion, be enforced in any Court in the land. Such a provision would simply result in rendering entirely nugatory the whole law, and be a repetition of the farce which tends to bring the law and its administrators into contempt. We have very little doubt that Mr. Delegate Hooper, of Utah, will be perfectly willing to have such a law enacted, even, if for appearance sake, he does not openly advocate its passage.

We suggested in our former article that there were, to our mind, other though minor objections to the "Howard Amendment." Among these we think the 16th section is impolitic and will tend to render the whole Act inoperative, if retained. It reads as follows:

"Sec. 16. That every person, male or female, who shall knowingly and willingly aid and assist in or be present at such ceremony or rite of Mormonism, known as such sealing or spiritual marriage with intent to countenance, encourage and give effect to the same, shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and on conviction thereof, before a Court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished as last aforesaid, and the person or persons celebrating or solemnizing such ceremony, shall be punished as last aforesaid and by a fine of at least $1,000 each, and imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary for at least two years."

If the author of the bill had intended to draft something to give perfect impunity to the celebration of polygamic marriages, and to render entirely useless and void the whole law, we do not think he could have devised a surer way of accomplishing that result than he has evinced in section 16.

It places it absolutely out of the power of the prosecution to obtain any evidence of such spiritual marriages, by making all the witnesses particeps criminis. Without such a provision the Government could call as witnesses any person known or believed to be present at such prohibited marriage or sealing, and compel them to testify. With it, the witnesses one and all could and would take refuge behind the article of the Constitution which exempts them from criminating themselves. No witness could be compelled to answer, and the only possible way the Government could hope to obtain evidence on which to found an indictment or convict, would be to resort to the odious system of espionage and try to "ring in" its spies. A system we may say, very little inferior in dignity to that which it is designed to uproot, and one which does not commend itself very strongly to the moral sense of mankind in general.

The 16th section, then, in our judgment, ensures the defeat of any practical working of the law, and must operate as a serious check in its administration. The trouble is, in such matters, in the effort to make stringent measures, law-makers try to do too much; regardless of its practical workings, they overshoot the mark, o'er leap themselves and make all sorts of blunders. We hope that Congress will remember that polygamy and Mormonism have grown up to be a practical, live question, and should only be dealt with in that view. It is useless and worse than vain to undertake to run a Quixotic tilt against them. They cannot be either put down or repressed by either wordy fulminations against them or by impracticable or unconstitutional enactments. We are satisfied that it is just these things which have given the system strength and enabled the leaders to force it on the people. Because, heretofore, the Government has done nothing, or what it has done and the manner of doing it, have been so little adapted to the purpose, the people laugh and scoff, and begin to believe, not only that their leaders are right, but that the Government is in reality the impotent thing it is represented to be.

It should always be remembered by Legislators, as well as by Judges, that it is not so much the severity as the certainty of punishment which insures obedience to law. The law, as it stands now, on the subject of polygamy, is sufficiently stringent, perhaps, but is totally impracticable so far as enforcement is concerned. According to our view and for the reasons suggested, the "Howard Amendment" not only fails to remedy the defects which exist in the present law, but is not likely to be more effectual. The problem of Polygamy will remain a problem still, as difficult of solution as ever—and what is more, Congress will be laughed at for its pains.

INDIAN FIGHT.—Under date of Camp Lyon, January 11th, we have been supplied with the following account of a scout after Indians: On January 3d, Mr. Pickett, Beebe, and Express-messenger Phillips, with four Indian scouts, left Camp Lyon for the purpose of finding Indians, if possible. We traveled west from Camp Lyon until we struck the Owyhee river about twenty-five miles below Hill's Ferry, which place is named Big Bend or Big Canon. We then traveled down the river some twenty-five miles. On the evening of the 8th we saw twelve Indians with six horses. We commenced an attack on them by firing our pieces at them. Killed one Indian, captured two horses and destroyed several bushels of seeds. When we commenced firing on them they left post haste for the other side of the river.

This note was written by one of the party, and is another evidence that well directed search and a wish to find a fight will be rewarded with success.—Avalanche.

THE Tribune, says the Home Journal, has engaged Mr. Dickens to write a novel for its weekly edition—paying for it $25,000.

ENGLISH manufacturers, with an eye for business, will seem to Fenian agents, and the Government afterwards seizes the same.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

New York, January 24.

A. J. Meyer & Co., brokers, failed, and the ... account at the Bank of North America ... to the amount of two hundred ... has received over ... hundred dollars. ... P. Yelverton, President ... Bank, was in attendance ... on yesterday application was made to the paying teller to certify to some checks of Meyer, but as the amount was large and no deposits in the bank, the officer declined to assume the responsibility. Yelverton, having the utmost confidence that deposits would be promptly made to meet the checks, certified to them. The loss sustained by the bank so worked on Yelverton's mind as to occasion his death. The friends of Meyer say he did not intend to defraud the bank, but expected to meet the obligations in consequence of having sustained heavy losses. It is barely possible that a compromise may be effected.

New York, January 25.

The National Republican says it has the highest authority for asserting that the article alleged to have appeared in its columns, favoring armed resistance to Congress, was not authorized or sanctioned by the President.

The Washington Chronicle of the past week was quite coarse towards the leaders in the impeachment movement.

The excitement in Wall street continues, and additional failures are reported. There is a general lack of confidence on the street. Prime & Co., leading stock brokers, failed; also Snigly Bros., Meyers & Co. and Jno. Morrissey. Heavy decline of stocks, Erie, from 65 to 57.

There will be no amendment to the mining law of July 1. Recent instructions to ... and others admit such a liberal construction as to remove all difficulties which were supposed to be in the way in obtaining a title under the law.

The War Department is sending troops to protect the overland route, declaring the proposition of Wells, Fargo & Co. sufficient cause for such action, and for which appropriations would be enanacted.

The ship Germania, with twelve hundred ton of iron for the Central Pacific Railroad, will sail soon.

New York, January 25.

A bill is reported in the Senate appropriating $93,000 for forwarding contributions to Paris, and authorizing twenty additional commissioners.

Felix O. Byrne was arrested in New York for swindling and forging checks. The case was postponed.

The stock market closed barely steady. The following is a comparison of to-day's prices with those of Monday in stocks. The heaviest decline in the New York Central is from 108½ to 99½; the Erie from 64½ to 57½; the Michigan Southern from 78 to 70; the North Western from 79 to 72½; the Pittsburg from 89½ to 81½; the Illinois Central from 116½ to 112.

Henry A. Nuly was consecrated Bishop of Maine at Trinity Chapel. Bishop Potter preaching the sermon, touched on the spiritual movement, which he favored, but urged moderation.

The Kentucky Legislature makes no progress in Senatorial election.

Four hundred negroes have been registered for Georgetown city election, in the District of Columbia, which occurs on the 1st of February.

Chicago, January 25.

The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce has adopted a central system, thus making complete the action of Western Boards of Trade. It now depends on New York.

New York, January 25.

The panic movement in Wall street continues; the exhaustion of margins by decline of yesterday, caused a heavy realization movement on leading stock at both Boards this morning, and further heavy decline in prices of Erie, which at one time touched 55; Michigan 66; M. W. 33, and common do. 57½. Subsequently the market rallied, upon the rumor that the Secretary of the Treasury had decided upon suspending contraction of currency, a dispatch of that nature having been exhibited, but its accuracy doubted. Money market a little easier towards close of bank hours, and capital not readily obtained at 7 per cent.

The failures among brokers and heavy decline in stocks during the past few days, induces a much greater caution on the part of banks. Among the numerous failures reported to-day, the only cases which at present appear authentic, are those of Howard, Lapsley, Reed & Chase and F. A. Van Dyke.

New York, January 25.

The Judiciary Committee of the lower house of the Alabama Legislature will, it is said, submit a bill to-morrow for the removal of the capital from Montgomery to Mobile.

Columbus, O., January 25.

The following letter from Governor Cox was received by Gen. B. R. Cowen, Chairman of the Union State Convention:

My Dear Sir: A sense of duty to my family has made me decide to return, at the close of my present term of office, to my profession and to the care of my private affairs, which have been wholly neglected since 1861. For this reason, I shall not be a candidate for renomination.

Very respectfully,

J. D. COX.

Additional House: Niblack asked Stevens whether he proposed to have the vote on Reconstruction taken to-morrow. Stevens replied that he intended to have it disposed of to-morrow in some manner.

The House then adjourned.

New York, January 25.

Very few additional facts have come out in regard to the case of the National Bank of North America and the broker Meyers. A proposition has been made by friends of Meyers, looking to a compromise with the bank for $85,000.

Additional Senate: The Tariff bill was considered. On motion of Johnson, and after debate, it was amended so as to fix the duty on Cannel coal at $1,50 per ton—yeas, 26; nays, 14. The duty on machinery was raised from 45 to 55 per cent. ad valorem. The duty on copper ore was changed to 3 per cent. per pound. The duty on zinc paints was raised to 3 cents per pound, and on zinc to 3½ cents per pound.

The House afterwards adjourned.

A bill was introduced in the House calling on the Government to designate how much of the Presidio Reserve was required for Government purposes, so that the balance may be opened for settlement. This scheme succeeding, parties concerned will absorb the remainder. The Government, since the dismissal of the appeal of the Pueblo cases, has a perfect title of Goat Island, though for seventeen years it has never set up a claim. Parties in Washington are working to get the title to the Island from the Government.

The Post-office appropriation bill was passed by the House. It contains an amendment releasing the contractors of the Pacific mail from the Honolulu service.

The House Committee on Appropriations will report a bill in accordance with the estimates of the War Department for $50,000 for Fort Point, and $100,000 for Alcatraz. The proposition to expend $50,000 for Black Point was not acted upon.

New York, January 26.

The Boston Anti-Slavery Society, last night, unanimously resolved that the safety and honor of the nation demands the immediate removal of the President, the displacement of State Governments in the South, and the remodeling of the Supreme Court. No rebel Territory should be recognized as a State until the Federal Constitution guarantees every loyal citizen a ballot and education to the negro, and land besides.

The Tribune's special says there are reports that the Judiciary Committee are taking impeachment testimony. They are waiting on the movements of Ashley, who is engaged in arranging the data upon which the Committee will proceed.

Chicago, January 26.

The bill reported yesterday by Hooper from the Ways and Means Committee, and passed by the House, fixes the same tax on whisky, distilled from burning fluid, as on that manufactured in the usual way. Of late large quantities of whisky has been manufactured by first distilling burning fluid from mash of corn mixed with turpentine, and then washing it, as the operation is termed, and obtaining whisky.

The Naval Committee of the House is making up its report relative to acting on the new Ironsides at League Island. Three examinations have been made into the loss of this vessel: 1st, by the Navy Department; 2d, by the Chief of Police of Philadelphia, and 3d, by Congress. Every person likely to know anything about the matter was examined and the result of the whole investigation is that it is impossible to find out whether it originated by accident or incendiarism. Some facts seem to show very clearly that it could not have been occasioned by design, while on the other hand other facts indicate it must have been the work of an incendiary. Probably the cause of the fire can never be conclusively shown.

It is understood that the following answer was returned to an invitation received by Senator Sumner and lady to the next Presidential State dinner: "Mr. and Mrs. Sumner regret to be unable to accept the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson."

New York, January 26.

In the Senate, Doolittle presented a report of the Joint Special Committee who were to inquire into the condition of the Indian tribes and the management of affairs, appointed March 3d, 1865.

Wade called up the bill authorizing the construction of the lateral branch of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad within the District of Columbia. Passed.

The House, after private bills, took up Stevens' reconstruction bill. Ross made a speech against it. Stevens gave notice that he would take the floor on Monday, and seek to put the bill on its passage if Ashley would withdraw his substitute and Bingham would withdraw his motion to refer the bill to the Committee on Reconstruction. He would ask to have it considered.

New York, January 26.

The efforts made to-day are calmer; the heavy fall in stocks brought out buyers for investments.

Washington, January 26.

While it is true that Secretary McCulloch is desirous of relieving the money market from pressure by contract on $400,000 greenbacks, it is not correct that he will stop the withdrawal immediately.

House—In Ashley's remarks he alluded to men holding seats on the Democratic side who co-operated with rebels. Findley took exceptions to the remark and denounced it as utterly untrue and a base and unfounded slander. Hunter, new member from Brooklyn district, added, so far as he was concerned, it is a base lie. Hill called Hunter to order, and the Speaker ruled that the words were out of order. Randall, of Pennsylvania, said it was nevertheless true. Hill moved a vote of censure against Hunter; carried, 84 to 34. The Speaker briefly administered the censure to Hunter, who stated that he used the language in a moment of irritation, but he intended no disrespect to the House. Ashley made an explanation of his remarks, which he intended should apply to those here or elsewhere, who, during or since the war, were in direct alliance with the opposition, who had worked against supplies, or discouraged enlistments and encouraged desertion, and organized a conspiracy to overthrow the Government; and he intended them to apply to no other. Adjourned.

Both Houses of Congress having, by report of Conference Committee, adopted the bill concerning appointment of pension agents, have sent it to the President. It removes all pension agents appointed since January last, and requires new appointments, subject to the confirmation of the Senate.

Are gentlemen dressed
In suits from Anker's Hall;
And the best that ever was
That he ever gave him a call.

He honestly deals,
And nothing conceals,
But explains the wear of his clothes,
But speaks with the truth,
To man and to youth,
Which each of his customers knows.

Hence, friends, one and all,
Go to Anker's Hall,
Where boldly—don't cowardly creep,
For there you'll find,
All obliging and kind,
With Clothing tremendously cheap.
